CAUSE

The probation officer believes that the action requested above is necessary for the following reasons:

The offender has been supervised in the Eastern District of New York since his release from custody. He had three incidents in February, 2010, where he has purchased and viewed adult pornography magazines. He was issued a letter of reprimand for this behavior. During a polygraph examination on February 25, 2010 the offender admitted to purchasing an adult pornography in December 2009. He then used an unauthorized computer at his girlfriend's residence, scanned the pornographic images onto her computer and masturbated to the same. The offender has been reminded that he is only permitted to use a monitored computer and has been directed to notify the supervising officer when he visits his girlfriend.

As a sanction for this conduct which violates his conditions of supervision the offender agreed to 60 days of home confinement. He signed the attached waiver.

The supervising officer's position is that the 60 days of home confinement will serve as a punitive sanction for his non-compliance, as well as a corrective strategy by restricting the offender from frequent places where pornography is sold and provides the probation office with the ability to more closely monitor his activities.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
